High Point Native Sorrell Gives Back to Alma Mater Southwest Guilford High

High Point, NC (June 1, 2009) – High Point resident, Amelia Hill, who recently graduated from Southwest Guilford High School, became the recipient of the Scott D. Sorrell Annual Scholarship in recognition of her academic and overall achievement. Hill will be attending North Carolina State University in college this fall.

Insurance professional and former Southwest Guilford graduate, Scott Sorrell founded the award as a way of giving back to his school and helping young people strive to achieve. “I learned so much while I was here and feel that it helped me develop the foundation to succeed in my career in financial services. I hope this will help Amelia make the most of his time at North Carolina State University and I wish him the best.” Sorrell plans to continue to make the scholarship an annual event.

Sorrell now resides in Raleigh, North Carolina, as an Investment Advisor Representative of Signator Investors, Inc. and is with the Capitol Financial Solutions, Member of John Hancock Financial Network an insurance and investment firm located at 8510 Colonnade Center Drive in Raleigh. A graduate of UNC-Chapel Hill, he holds the CLTC (Certified in Long Term Care) designation. Sorrell is a member of the National Association of Insurance and Financial Advisors (NAIFA) a leading industry organization. To learn more about Sorrell’s professional career, one can visit his website at www.scottsorrell.net.

In addition to founding the scholarship, Sorrell is very active in his local community devoting time and financial support to a number of organizations, including Rotary, the Carolina Club, and the Ram’s Club.
